Wander through the narrow streets of the historic old town, home to charming shops adorned with festive decorations, cafés and the bustling Mercado de la Ribera along the river. Have the opportunity to explore the Guggenheim Museum, a masterpiece of contemporary architecture, with its sculpted tower appearing to wrap around the bridge that leads into the city, or immerse yourself in the Basque way of life by sampling Rioja wine, accompanied by pintxos, the region's version of tapas, in the local bars and restaurants.

Monday 31st August 2026 - Santander, Spain

Located between Gijon and Bilbao on Spain's north coast, Santander is an elegant city with impressive buildings set against a natural backdrop of sea and mountains. The city combines its heritage with modernity perfectly, and is best seen via the popular funicular railway that creeps up to the upper section of Santander, offering superb views across the bay. Close by are prehistoric caves, which contain some of the most important cave paintings of Quaternary art.
