Cruise Itinerary

Tuesday 27th July 2027

This morning we embark the beautiful Borealis in Liverpool, our home for the next 14 nights.

Wednesday 28th - Thursday 29th July 2027 - At sea

A couple of days at sea to relax and explore the fabulous facilities on Borealis.

Friday 30th July 2027 - Matosinhos for Porto

Matosinhos is a delightful town to explore, where a summer stroll along the promenade offers a laidback atmosphere and a lovely beach located just outside the town. Venture to Porto, and you'll be offered opportunities to explore the narrow, cobbled streets and colourful houses of Ribeira, or perhaps take a boat trip along the Douro River to witness scenic landscapes of terraced vineyards and traditional wine estates known as quintas.

Saturday 31st July - Sunday 1st August 2027 - Lisbon, Portugal

Today we arrive in Lisbon for our overnight stay. Visiting Lisbon in the warm summer months allows for opportunities to explore further outside the city centre, including marvelling at views across the city from the many miradouros (viewpoints). You will also be ideally placed for wandering along the labyrinth of cobblestoned streets of Alfama, Lisbon's oldest district, which offers a captivating journey through the city, from the grandeur of São Jorge Castle to the stirring rhythms of Fado music.

Monday 2nd August 2027 - Solar Eclipse

Today, you'll have the rare chance to witness a total solar eclipse from the perfect vantage point of the open decks of your smaller Fred. Olsen ship. This remarkable phenomenon will be visible at sea near the remote Azores archipelago, and from ashore in Ceuta, Spain. To enrich your experience, astronomers from Go Stargazing will be on board to share their expertise and provide fascinating live commentary.

Tuesday 3rd August 2027 - Funchal, Madeira

The glorious island of Madeira is known as the 'Garden Island' due to its array of subtropical flowers and plants that seem to burst from every direction. From Funchal, you'll be able to witness the floral beauty of the island at the exquisite garden in Monte, featuring themed gardens and tropical plants, while its levada walking trails offer unique views of enchanting forests and flowing streams.

Enjoy a day at sea, perhaps indulge in afternoon tea or treat yourself to a spa treatment.

Thursday 5th August 2027 - Ponta Delgada

During your visit to the island of Ponta Delgada, home to beautiful mountains, flourishing hydrangeas, sandy beaches, and the famous twin crater lakes of the extinct Sete Cidades Volcano, you'll also have the chance to explore the historic centre of Portas da Cidade, and enjoy the islands parks and viewpoints.

Friday 6th August 2027 - Praia da Vitoria

The Azores archipelago is a melting pot of Portuguese influences, and the capital of Terceira, Praia da Vitoria, offers a captivating blend of lush hills and volcanic vistas once the mist clears. Perhaps visit the Facho viewpoint for panoramic views over the city and its bay, or delve into the historic fortifications and cobbled streets of the nearby UNESCO World Heritage Site of Angro do Heroismo, before strolling along the peaceful marina and sampling freshly caught seafood and local dishes, like Azorean beef cooked in a claypot.
