Cruise Itinerary

Sunday 25th April 2027

This morning we embark the beautiful Bolette at Newcastle our home for the next 6 nights.

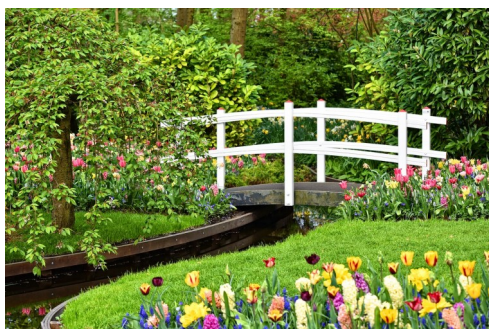

Monday 26th April 2027 - Sea day

Today you can enjoy a lovely day at sea. Perhaps treat yourself to a spa treatment in the on-board spa (at own expense) or take part in some of the on-board activities.

Tuesday 27th April 2027 - Amsterdam

A city of canals and bikes, historic Amsterdam is a network of waterways lined with elegant merchant homes, museums and friendly cafés. Just outside Amsterdam, the bulb fields burst into a sea of colour each spring, drawing visitors from all over the world. Endless rows of vibrant reds, yellows, pinks, and purples stretch across the fields, creating a breathtaking patchwork that looks almost unreal. Here you could take a shore excursion (at own expense) to visit the famous Keukenhof Gardens, often called the "Garden of Europe." Here you can explore the winding paths, serene ponds, and artful displays of millions of blooming tulips. You can stroll through the manicured flower beds across the vast fields, an experience that feels magical - an unforgettable celebration of Dutch beauty and tradition.

In the evening, you could enjoy a canal cruise to see the city's bridges and historic houses beautifully illuminated or dine in world-class restaurants offering everything from traditional Dutch dishes to international cuisine. We enjoy an overnight here in Amsterdam.

Itinerary Continued...

Wednesday 28th April 2027 - Amsterdam

Another half day in this wonderful city. Perhaps explore the famous Canal Ring that is best explored by glass-topped boat, passing significant monuments and seeing the city from a different perspective. Another must see is the poignant Anne Frank House, where Anne and her family hid from the Germans during the Second World War. Mid afternoon we depart Amsterdam and cruise down the North Sea Canal to Rotterdam where we overnight.

Thursday 29th April 2027 - Rotterdam

Rotterdam is a major port in the Dutch province of South Holland. The Netherlands' second largest city, Rotterdam has a diverse community, a captivating maritime history, and an abundance of excellent museums. When you arrive, you will find the city is an exhibition of futuristic architecture, an achievement even more remarkable considering Rotterdam was destroyed during World War II. Perhaps visit the Euromast Tower which is Rotterdam's tallest observation structure, standing at 185 meters high. Here you could enjoy breathtaking 360-degree views of the city and the River Maas. For cheese lovers, you may wish to take an excursion (at own expense) to Gouda. Perhaps visit the Gouda Cheese experience, an interactive museum that brings the history and tradition of Dutch cheese-making to life. Here you can explore exhibits showing how Gouda cheese has been made for centuries, from traditional hand-pressing techniques to modern production methods.

Friday 30th April 2027 - Sea day

Perhaps relax by the pool or take part in one of the activities on-board, as we make our way to back to Newcastle.

Saturday 1st May 2027

We arrive back in to Newcastle and disembark the beautiful Bolette.

Bolette

Bolette is Fred. Olsen's flagship and is everything that their loyal guests have come to expect. She exudes a classic, elegant style in her exterior and interior design, features spacious and comfortable public areas, and has all the facilities and special touches you need for a relaxing and enjoyable holiday.

While she's one of the largest ships, by overall size, in the Fred. Olsen fleet, Bolette has capacity for less than 1,400 guests. So, in keeping with their smaller-ship ethos, you'll find that you're not overcrowded on board and have plenty of space in which to indulge yourself in the stylish dining venues, enjoy fantastic entertainment at the bars, lounges, and while away the hours by the all season pool. Of course, with their friendly staff providing the typical level of personal, attentive service, there's an intimate feel to the on board experience too.
