Tour Itinerary

Tuesday 26th January 2027

Morning flights from Manchester to the volcanic gem of the Canaries, Lanzarote. A short transfer of 20 mins takes us to our wonderful 4* hotel to settle in before dinner. (D)

Wednesday 27th January 2027

We explore the Parque Natural de Los Volcanes, which surrounds the Timanfaya National Park on the west of the island. Our first walk takes us through dramatic volcanic landscapes, where we'll be mesmerised by the solidified magma shapes, which originated from the last and one of the greatest volcanic eruptions in the 18th century. We also visit the most popular attraction on the island, the spectacular Timanfaya National Park. (B,D)

Length of walk: 8km - Easy
Ascent/descent: none significant

Thursday 28th January 2027

Today our 11km walk starts from the old capital of Lanzarote, Tegui. Situated in the north east of the island, the town of Tegui was one of the first settlements established in the Canary Islands and was capital of Lanzarote until 1847. From here take a short stroll along the cobbled streets of this pretty village, before we make the gentle descent to one of the most beautiful beaches on the island. Famara beach is one of Lanzarote's jewels, a 3 kilometre long sandy beach with dramatic 600 metre volcanic sea cliffs soaring up behind it. (B,D)

Length of walk: 11km - Easy
Ascent/descent: 151m / 445m

Friday 29th January 2027

Join our optional full day excursion walking the stunning Papagayo peninsula from Playa Blanca (Pre booking required). A 2 hour walk takes us to the unspoilt and secluded beaches of crystal clear waters and white sands. Enjoy some free time and lunch (at own expense) in the delightful former fishing village of Playa Blanca. The picturesque marina is the perfect place to relax and enjoy the stunning vistas or indulge in some high-end shopping. For those who do not join this excursion you have a day at leisure to explore or just soak up the winter sunshine.

Length of walk: 7-8km - Easy
Ascent/descent: 110m / 110mm

Single Room Supplement: £210pp

A deposit of £300pp is required to reserve your place on this tour

Saturday 30th January 2027

Today we discover one of the most famous and beautiful walking routes in North Lanzarote. Setting off from the agricultural village of Maguez; this walk takes us across several valleys along the breath-taking 600 metre high Famara Cliffs. Along our 11 km walk we will enjoy incredible views over Famara beach, the El Jable Desert and the Islets of the Chinijo Archipelago. We visit the authentic village of Haria which is located in the stunning One Thousand Palm Tree Valley, before making our way back to Maguez. (B,D)

Length of walk: 11km - Easy to moderate

Ascent/descent: 487m / 385m

Sunday 31st January 2027

Monday's walk takes place in the vineyard area of La Geria, a unique agricultural landscape. Our 8km walk takes us through the dark ash fields and learn about how the local farmers had to adjust to overcome the volcanic catastrophe back in the 18th century. Discover the unique way of how the farmers cultivate these black sandy parched lands in order to obtain juicy fruits. (B,D)

Length of walk: 8km - Easy to moderate

Ascent/descent: 380m / 320 m

Monday 1st February 2027

Enjoy a day at leisure. Perhaps stroll along the promenade at Los Pocillos, visit Puerto de Carmen, search out your perfect lunch spot or enjoy the facilities at our lovely hotel. (B,D)

Tuesday 2nd February 2027

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast, before we say goodbye to beautiful Lanzarote. Taking a late afternoon flight back to Manchester airport (B)
